Childcare Resources Elects New Board Members, Renews Board Terms

Vero Beach, FL (May 3, 2010) — Members of the Childcare Resources board of directors recently elected 2010-2011 board members, installed officers and renewed board terms.

Judy Newhouse and Sherry Waddell were welcomed to the board of directors. Newhouse has a lengthy history of volunteer service, including the Junior League of Summit, NJ; her three sons' schools and sports teams; the Kent Place School Alumnae Board of Directors in Summit, New Jersey; and ten years as a board member of Bridges, an organization that assists and visits the homeless population in lower Manhattan, New York City. Currently, Ms. Newhouse also volunteers with Special Equestrians of the Treasure Coast and recently served on Childcare Resources' Education Center Director Search Committee.

Waddell, a lifelong resident of Indian River County, founding member and longtime volunteer for Childcare Resources, retired last year as the Director of Community Preschool after 28 years of service. During that time, she planned, designed and implemented two building construction projects for the preschool. Ms. Waddell also recently served on the Education Center Director Search Committee.

Erin Grall of Grall, Glenn and Grall was re-elected president of the organization. Also on the 2010-2011 slate of officers were Stanley Doggett, President-elect; Wanda Lincoln, Vice-President; Trudie Rainone, Secretary; and David Reisinger, CPA of O'Haire, Kmetz, Nuttall and Elwell, Treasurer.

About Childcare Resources

Childcare Resources makes quality early education affordable for financially challenged working families, and also provides referral and support services to help maintain family stability, as well as a wide variety of parenting programs and professional development opportunities for early educators. The United Way and Indian River County Children's Services agency recently completed a campaign to open the Childcare Resources Education Center on the campus of Trinity Episcopal Church in July 2010. Since its founding in 1994, more than 1,000 children and their families have had access to quality, affordable childcare. To learn more, call 772.567.3202 or visit www.childcareresourcesir.org.
