

The Importance of Child Engagement in Play and Learning & Emergent Literacy

Alan Guttman

October 22, 2022 | 9 am - 3 pm

Learn how to define and identify the types and levels of a child's engagement with adults, peers, materials, play activities and instructional tasks.

Learn the basic sequence of language development milestones and strategies for supporting and promoting language development in young children.

- Available at no cost to early educators in Indian River County
- Certificate of in-service provided
- CEUs available from FLAAYC
- Workshop will be held at First Presbyterian Church
- Breakfast and lunch will be provided
- Join us for the opportunity to network with your colleagues

Professional Development Opportunity! Space is Limited. Register Today.

www.ChildcareResourcesIR.org/workshop

Please contact Monica Cheslak with questions:

Monica ChildcareResourcesIR.org

772-567-3202 ext. 104

Funding provided by Indian River County Children's Services Advisory Committee and PNC.

