Early Childhood Educator Fall Community of Practice

With Coach Todd Morrow

Join Coach Todd Morrow to review videos of your classroom and the classrooms of other teachers to identify evidence of CLASS domains and dimensions. As a community of practice, we will provide and receive feedback in a supportive and non-judgmental environment while sharing best practices and enjoying each others' company. Participants will learn specific instructional strategies to help boost their observation results, increase student engagement and ultimately increase student learning. Don't miss this exciting opportunity!
